Description: Through the advertising of the free period of the Premium account in the navigation panel of the Ukrainian version of the site (via ) has expanded and closed important functions of the site

Pre-condition: -

Steps to reproduce:

1. Open <https://www.linkedin.com/feed/> and change the language to Ukrainian via "More" setting at the left bottom side of the site

Expected result: The navigation panel of the Ukrainian version of the site has the dimensions set according to requirements and does not overlap the important functions of the site

Actual result: Changing the language of the site does not change the dimensions of the navigation panel

Category: UI & localization

Environment: Google Chrome version 106.0.5249.61
Ubuntu 20.04.5
